MEET CANADIAN STUDENTS

Students will be paired with a Douglas student before arriving to ask any questions they might have and make a friend before they get to Canada. There will also be several activities, outings and cultural exchanges with Douglas College students.

ENJOY CAMPUS LIFE

Students will be able to enjoy Campus life at Douglas College, and can enjoy on campus fitness facilities, the cafeteria and the library. At the end of the program there will also be a celebration to conclude the 2 week immersion program.

OUTINGS & ACTIVITIES

Students will explore all kinds of places in Metro Vancouver. They will have opportunities to explore different neighbourhoods and popular tourist destinations throughout the Lower Mainland like Stanley Park, Granville Island and a hike at Deep Cove.

CANADIAN INDIGENOUS CULTURE

Students will learn about Canadian culture and the importance of Indigenous history. English classes and workshops help to provide context to the outings & activities including visits like an art gallery a canoe tour and an indigenous cooking workshop.
