C L A U S E S

FIRST. The objective of the present Agreement is to establish the criteria under which the “UDEG” and the “DOKKYO” will jointly carry out academic, scientific and cultural collaborative activities, for the enrichment of the educational functions that are fulfilled.

SECOND. Both Parties agree to initiate cooperation in the following areas:

- a) Student exchange;
- b) Exchange of academic personnel;
- c) Development of research projects;
- d) Cooperation programs in virtual modality such as: Virtual Mobility; Mirror Classes; Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) among others.
- e) Design and organization of courses, conferences, symposia, degree programs and continuing education programs, amongst others, for the academic, scientific, and cultural benefit of both institutions;
- f) Exchange of publications and other materials of common interest;
- g) Other activities on which the Parties agree upon for the fulfilment of the present Agreement.

THIRD. The Parties agree to financially support the programs, projects and activities that originate out of the present Agreement, according to the financial resources available.

FOURTH. The Parties agree that the proposed programs, projects or work agreements that arise from this Agreement, will be elevated to the category of specific agreements of collaboration, once they're signed by their institutional representatives, and will be considered annexes to this Agreement, once signed by their representatives.

FIFTH. The specific proposed Agreement will describe, in precise detail and with complete accordance, the activities to be developed, the responsibilities of each party, the budget for each activity, a definition of the sources of finance, the personnel involved, the facilities and equipment to be used, a working calendar, and anything else necessary to precisely determine the aim and scope of each of the said agreements that will be the operative documents of the present Agreement.

SIXTH. The Parties agree to regulate through the corresponding specific agreement questions relative to the property rights arising from authorship of jointly elaborated materials as a result of their joint activities, as well as questions concerning ownership of industrial rights patents, certificates of invention, and registry of models, among others that might result from the cooperative research.

SEVENTH. The Parties will each designate their own personnel to administer the activities of this Agreement, including the continuation and proposed endorsement of specific collaborations.

EIGHTH. Both Parties will work jointly or separately toward the obtaining of financial resources from other institutions, government agencies and national and international organisms for the development of the activities relative to the corresponding specific agreements in the event that said resources cannot be obtained either completely or partially by the Parties.

NINTH. In the development of work programs both Parties promise to respect the norms in force and applicable to each of the Parties.

TENTH. The Parties agree that they will not be responsible for damages, in the event that aforementioned activities in this document or in the specific task orders deriving from it cannot be completed due to unforeseen circumstances. Activities could resume in the manner that both Parties determine, once said circumstances are resolved.

ELEVENTH. The personnel designated by each party for the purpose of administering any activities that arise from this Agreement, will maintain current employment status at their home university and will not be considered, in any way, part of the visiting institution. The personnel will continue under the absolute direction and dependence of the party with which they have established their labor relationship or have been hired, so there will be no relationship whatsoever with the other party and in no case may they be considered substitute employers, and therefore, each of them assumes the responsibilities that correspond to them as a result of such relationship. The host university will not incur labor responsibilities regarding visiting personnel participants.

TWELFTH. The parties agree to consider as confidential all information related to the activities of the "UDEG" to which the "DOKKYO" has access, and vice versa, as a result of this agreement and which is not of a public nature.

THIRTEENTH. The present Agreement will be valid for five years and will come into effect from the date of its joint signing. In the case of separate signatures, the date of the second will be taken as its initial date. The agreement will be renewed automatically for a further period of five (5) years at each expiration date, unless one of the Parties provides, with a minimum of six (6) months prior to the expiration date, the written notice about its desire to terminate the Agreement; likewise, it might be extended and/or modified by mutual agreement if the Parties request it, by written notice, at least six (6) months prior to its expiration. Should there be any ongoing collaboration actions, the Agreement may not be terminated until their completion.

FOURTEENTH. The present Agreement may be renewed or modified at any time during its validity with the consent of both Parties, adhering to the necessary administrative and legal procedure, obligating the Parties to the new stipulations, from the date of its signing.

FIFTEENTH. The Parties demonstrate good faith in signing this Agreement and accept the obligations contracted in it, agreeing to carry out all the actions necessary to fulfill them. If a discrepancy should occur over its interpretation, it will be resolved by mutual accord.

Both Parties, having read the present document and with the understanding of the content and extent of each of its clauses, indicating the absence of malice, dishonesty or any other reason to nullify their consent, sign it in duplicate, in English and Spanish, both versions with the same content and validity.
